

2022 EMERGING LEADERS PROGRAM

ACEC of Kansas Emerging Leaders Program is for individuals committed to developing their leadership abilities. This program imparts specific skills and competencies identified by top ACEC of Kansas principals as critical for leadership success. These highly interactive sessions are taught by experts in the field of business administration and people management in professional services firms. Session meeting locations and times are listed with the session. This program is only open to ACEC of Kansas member firms. Featured session topics include:

Thursday and Friday, August 4-5, 2022

Location: Cyrus Hotel
920 S. Kansas Ave
Topeka, KS 66612

Thursday, August 4, 2022

Orientation

10:00 am – 12:00 pm

Scott Heidner, J.D., ACEC of Kansas Executive Director

Do you think 20 engineers will be too shy to get to know each other in a short time? Think again! ACEC Kansas Executive Director Scott Heidner will deliver a high energy presentation, and interactive sessions will have class members working and laughing together in no time at all. This critical session sets the stage for class members to work together for the program.

Lunch

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Leadership

1:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Dan Oblinger, Founder, Leadercraft Corporate Education

If you want to be a great leader, you'll want to be a great listener. This presentation helps the participants to diagnose any listening habits that are hindering their ability to communicate well. It provides a practical and effective method of improving listening, negotiating, and leadership. An experienced hostage negotiator will provide a guided tour of the ancient and nearly lost art of listening well.

Reception at ACEC Office

5:30 pm – 6:30 pm

825 S. Kansas Avenue, Suite 500
Topeka, KS 66612

This will include a presentation from Steve Hall, ACEC National Vice President of Government Affairs and other ACEC Kansas leaders.

Dinner as a group: Celtic Fox

6:45 pm

118 S 8th Ave., Topeka KS 66603

Friday, August 5, 2022

Business Development

8:30 am - 10:30 am

Mike Lally, PE, PG, Replica

Instilling and encouraging a strong business development culture in your firm makes great business sense. It can prove to be an important differentiator and can positively influence the firm's project delivery, hiring and recruiting, and career development processes. Developing a business development culture requires understanding the distinction between marketing and business development, exposing false common business development myths, recognizing the many ways in which technical staff can contribute to the business development process, and investing in strategies that yield the highest return-on-investment.

Governmental Affairs

10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Representative Fred Patton, Chair of the House Judiciary Committee

The government's leadership influences the overall business climate and an individual firm's success. Business leaders need to know how to participate effectively in the public arena and build consensus. They also need to understand how government affairs activities can help their business succeed and how to encourage active participation at the grassroots level in the firm.

Thursday and Friday, September 15-16, 2022

Location: Courtyard Wichita at Old Town

820 E. 2nd St. N.

Wichita, KS 67202

Risk Management

1:00 pm – 5:00 pm

Wyatt Hoch, J.D., Foulston Siefkin LLP

Carefully wording contract provisions minimizes risk to design professionals. We'll discuss how contract provisions allocate risks between parties and the legal effect of specific contract provisions. Getting contracts right the first time can be the difference between a profitable project and incurring more liability than your firm can afford.
